ction of the Members of the Memphis Bar and of the Alumni of Camberland University as to the Charges Against the Renowned Jurist,

At a meeting of the members of Cumber land university, in this city, May 15, 1879, Hon. Archibald Wright was called to the chair and F. T. Edmondson appointed secre-tary. The meeting being advised that charges affecting the character of Judge Robert L. Caruthers, of Lebanon, Tennessee, had been preferred in his church by its pastor, the charges were read from a copy of the Lebanon Herald for information. There-upon, on motion of W. A. Collier, a commit-tee composed of Hon. E. S. Hammond, judge of the United States district court, W. D. Beard and W. P. Wilson were appointed to take the matter into consideration and re port such resolutions as would express the confidence of this meeting in the distinguished gentleman whose character has been thus assailed.
On motion of Paul Smith, Judge Archibald Wright was added to the committee. Thereupon the committee reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the sentiment of this meeting, the friends of Judge Robert L. Caruthers, who have known him, some of us for fifty years, some for a quarter of a century, and all for many years, that he sity, Quebec. s incapable of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and a christian, and we hereby tender him our con dence and sympathy.

Resolved, That the committee already appointed take such steps as are necessary to forward these resolutions to him.

W. D. BRARD,
W. P. WILSON, Committee,

On motion these resolutions were unant mously adopted.

The meeting thereupon adjourned.

LAW REPORTS.

State Supreme Court. Special to the Appeal.] Jackson, May 15 .- The commission heard from Nos. 480 to 670 Shelby county chancery docket. The court will hear the case of Benstein vs the State to-morrow, and will resume the peremptory call of the Shelby chancery docket. Chancery Court Opinions. Chancellor M'Dowell yesterday delivered his opinion in the case of Bayliss rs. Polk, Upon the main points the findings of the court were in favor of the complainant. The court held that Mrs. Sallie Polk had the power and did mortgage her legal, equitable separate estate in the Mississippi lands for debts of her son. Claim of detendant for damages, by reason of failure to rent lands, disallowed, as also various items of usurious interest, as held and charged by the court. An account ordered and intimatio made that when the report comes in the in junction, so far as restrains the sale of the interest of James H. Polk, will be dissolved. These and other points were fully and elaborately discussed and passed upon by the court in a lengthy written opinion. A suit for the rescission of a contract for the purchase of real estate, between A. J. Morris and J. A. Creath, has been for the past two days, and is still pending on trial before a jury in the chancery court. Among the witnesses the complainant, who is mute, was examined, his evidence being given through an interpreter, by the medium of the deaf and dumb alphabet.

DECORATION DAY.

The Floral Committee at their Meeting last Monday Adopted a Plan of Action with Reference to the Decoration of Confederate Graves at Elmwood.

at the Peabody hotel last Monday morning, the following plan for the decoration of the Confederate graves was agreed upon: It was agreed by the ladies then present to endeavor furnish wreaths and crosses for fifteen hundred graves. It was suggested for uniformity that the wreaths be one foot in diameter and the crosses fifteen inches long. These wreaths and crosses can be made or Friday of cedar, ivy or other evergreens, and loewrs added to them on Saturday morning. now in the insane asylum of Louisiana. A lively discussion was entered into, when it was finally decided not to pay any attention to the matter.

the sculptor Ezekiel, for his statue of religious liberty, which was exhibited at the American Centennial. The Constitutional Grand lodge, which met at Philadelphia last January, issued an edict requiring the lodges of the country to pay their respective quotas. It is claimed that district No. 7 has already settled its share of the Centennial statue debt. After talking over the matter for a time it was laid on the table until telegrams can be received from the executive committee having the matter in charge.

DEAR SIR—The Bluff City Grays are destrous of January and robid-hearted humanitarian, Major Butler P. Anderson, who fell at his post battling for his fellows—struggling blindly and helpless against a the company to contribute to the fund being raised the company will march to the Theater in full dress uniform, and for their accommodation desire reserved seats in a body. May 13, 1879.

May 13, 1879. Mr. Peter Tracy, Manager Fra Diavolo—for Benefit of "Butler P. Anderson Fund;" of "Butler P. Anderson Fund."

DEAR SIR—The request of the committee on the "Butler P. Anderson fund." to the effect that the military companies in full-dress uniform would attend the opera of Fra Dinolo, to be repeated Friday, May 16, 1879, for the benofit of the above fund, has received the respectful consideration of the Chickasaw Guards. They regret the much appreciated requirst was not made at an earlier date, as upon inquiry it appears that many of the company are already provided with tickets for self and sweetheart. To command the Chicks to attend as a company would be to break these engagements, thus causing a conflict between love and duty. Capitain Carnes might settle the question of jurisdiction, but in his absence from the city the average Chick would obey the commands of his sweetheart, and leave the undersigned junior officers to swell with pride over a corporal's guard. The sympathies of the company, and their best wishes, are with you and the committee in your worthy and benevolent undertaking. Herewith please find the check of the Chickasaw Guards for one hundred dollars, which they believe will be of more material assistance to your fund than the sight of their uniform. Andrew Allison, Ills, J. W. Howell, Tenn., J. M. Hamm, Tenn., J. M. Armstend, Ky., The stated clerk announced that he had been informed that a new synod, by name Presbyteries, known as Guthrie Graham and Red Oak. It was announced that Rev. Mr Block, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, would preach at the church to-night (Thursday). An election for moderator was declared in order. The following nominations were made: Rev. J. S. Grider, of Kentucky; Rev. Dr. A. J. M'Glumphy, of Illinois; Rev. J. H. Houx, of Missouri. On the roll being called, the following re sult was reached on the first ballot: Dr. M'Glumphy, 40; Dr. Grider, 65; Dr. Houx, The moderator, Dr. Patton, declared that Dr. J. S. Grider, of Kentucky, having re-ceived a majority of the votes cast, was duly elected as moderator of the fifty-ninth general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian

Rev. Drs. M'Glumphy and Houx, by request of the moderator, conducted the moderator elect, Dr. Grider, to the chair and introduced him to the brethren. Dr Grider addressed the assembly and thanked the commissioners for the honor conerred upon him. It was a compliment undeserved, but appreciated by him—one that could never be forgotten. Their labors were for Christ's kingdom, to labor for their divine master, whom he owed a higher debt of gratitude. He asked the co-operation of the assembly in the work to be accomplishe They needed not only preparation of head but also preparation of heart. He, in com-mon with all present, asked God's blessings on the assembly. He believed that in all these affairs there is a divinity that shapes our ends. He would try and be impartial in his rulings, and would do all he could to rapidly dispatch all business brought before Dr. Chrisman moved that a half hour each morning be devoted to religious devotions before opening regular business. The motion was carried. Dr. Chrisman moved to adjourn to this [Friday] morning at half-past eight o'clock. The motion was carried. Brother Sharp closed the proceedings with prayer, calling upon God to bless all present and direct their proceedings; and also to bless the people of Memphis, and especially those who entertained the commissioners. The assembly then adjourned to the hour appointed. The proceedings are conducted by Rev. J. S. Grider, of Kentucky, moderator; Ruling Elder John Frizzell, stated clerk, Nashville; Rev. J. M. Hubbert, assistant clerk, Lebannon, Tennessee; John R. Frizzell, assistant lerk, Nashville, Tennessee. To the above named gentlemen the Ap PEAL commissioner has been and will be under obligations for many reportorial favors.
